

From: Harris MacLeod harris.macleod@sclgroup.cc
Subject: CA Intelligence report
Date: October 19, 2015 at 04:49

HM

To:

Cc: Sabhita Raju sabhita.raju@sclgroup.cc, Sabrina Martin sabrina.martin@sclgroup.cc, Kyriakos Klosidis kyriakos.klosidis@sclgroup.cc, Alexander Nix alexander.nix@cambridgeanalytica.org, Alex Muir alex.muir@sclgroup.cc, Pere W. Brown pere.w.brown@sclgroup.cc, James Hillier james.hillier@sclgroup.cc, Jon Hassain jon.hassain@sclgroup.cc, Jordanna Zetter jordanna.zetter@cambridgeanalytica.org, Brittany Kaiser brittany.kaiser@cambridgeanalytica.org, Bianca Indipendente bianca.indipendente@sclgroup.cc, Matthew Binns matthew.binns@sclgroup.cc, Kieran Ward kieran.ward@sclgroup.cc, Tim Glistler tim.glistler@sclgroup.cc, Sebastian Richards sebastian.richards@cambridgeanalytica.org, Katharine O'Hara katy.ohara@sclgroup.cc, data@sclgroup.cc, Jordan Kleiner jordan.kleiner@sclgroup.cc, Matt Rizzetta mrizzetta@n6a.com, Robert Murtfeld robert.murtfeld@cambridgeanalytica.org

Hello,

Attached is our latest CA Intelligence report, providing some analysis of the GOP primary race based on our ongoing research.

Topics included in this report include:

- Why the GOP vice presidential running mate could matter more this time around
- The electorate's mixed feelings about outsider vs. establishment candidates
- Planned Parenthood and the politics of government shutdowns
- Hillary Clinton and emailgate
- Views of foreign policy

Please share with with clients, prospective clients and anyone else in your network that may find it interesting. And feedback is most welcome.

Best,

Harris

CA Intelligence
Report...r ll.pdf